

Have a concern?

We can help.

Any publicly placed student* is guaranteed access to high-quality, safe, and appropriate education, regardless of location.

The Pennsylvania Department of Education is committed to reviewing, and to the extent permitted by law, investigating complaints regarding the education of publicly placed students.

If you or someone you know would like to file a complaint, please visit:

www.pa.gov/publiclyplaced

Pennsylvania
Department of Education

*A publicly placed student is identified as any school-aged student placed by a court or child welfare agency in a Private Residential Rehabilitative Institute (PRRI), detention center, state correctional facility, or child residential facility as defined in 55 Pa. Code § 3800.5.